

Sixth Organic Seed Growers Conference
Program Advertising
January 19 – 21, 2012
Port Townsend, Washington

Advertise in the Sixth Organic Seed Growers Conference Program!

This is a terrific opportunity to showcase your business or organization to hundreds of conference participants. The program is the official conference guide, and includes the full agenda, session descriptions, speaker bios, and other conference information for participants to refer to throughout the conference. Our conference is recognized as the only event of its kind in North America, bringing together farmers, seed production and distribution companies, researchers, plant breeders, pathologists, university extension agents, and other organic seed community members.
